BIG FAILURE!

One of the Largest Wholesale Clothing Houses in Chicago Goes to the Wall.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Twenty-six confessions of judgments, aggregating $200,000, were filed in the circuit court to-day by Leopold Bros. & Co., the big wholesale clothing firm at 229 Franklin street. The confessions were for sums ranging from $2,000 to $25,000. Leopold Bros., & Co., are one of the largest firms of the kind in the city and the news of their trouble created great surprise in the wholesale clothing trade. The liabilities will aggregate $300,000. The firm was established in 1856 and did a business of about $1,000,000 a year. The tightness of the money market and slowness of collections are the reasons given for the failure. The real reason, however, is believed to be the reduction of their capital, caused by the death of two of the partners and the withdrawal of their money interests by their widows.

WILL THERE BE A STRIKE?

Indiana Miners Now Considering the Question at Terre Haute.

TERRE HAUTE, Oct. 31.—A delegates' convention of miners of the state is being held here to consider the proposed strike to-morrow. There are forty-six present, representing both the bituminous and block coal mines. The convention is being held under the auspices of the United Mineworkers' union, but delegates are present representing unorganized miners, who number about one-half of all in the state. The block-coal miners signed a yearly scale for 75 cents a ton the year around, beginning last May, and the bituminous miners signed for 70 cents. Always heretofore during the six months beginning on November 1 they have had a higher scale than during the summer six months, and miners who favor a strike if the 10 cents increase is not granted say the present scale was signed under duress.

THE WILDEST STORM

For Years Struck St. Johns Harbor Yesterday.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., Oct. 31.—The wildest storm for years struck St. Johns harbor yesterday. It was from the south-west, and therefore the shipping was protected by the breakwater. The velocity of the wind was forty-four miles an hour, with occasional gusts of greater violence. Serious damage has been done to the breakwater.

When the storm was at its height and hundreds were watching the waves breaking over the railway track at Union street, a terrific wind blast lifted Fred Munde, aged thirteen years, from the wharf into the raging sea. Fred Young, aged seventeen, who worked in a factory near by plunged in to rescue Munde and held him up for twenty minutes when the life buoy parted and both drifted out into Courtney bay.

Munde sank, but Young held on for about an hour in the raging sea, in sight of thousands, who could not help him. Finally he threw up his arms and went down. Both bodies were recovered last night when the tide went out.

ALASKA'S POPULATION

Is Estimated by the Census at Between 35,000 and 38,000.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Ivan Petroff, who superintended the census enumeration of Alaska, has arrived in Washington and is busily engaged on his report.

"The counting of the people is over with," said Mr. Petroff, "but all the returns are not yet in, and some will be delayed till next spring. From the data at my command I estimate the whole population to be between 35,000 and 38,000, about one seventh of whom are white people."

LEFT HIS WEALTH.

Ill Health Caused Him to Commit Suicide.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Wm. H. Calvert, a member of the firm of Vane, Calvert & Co., manufacturers of paints, at 201 Randolph street, shot himself through the head at six o'clock last evening, during a fit of despondency, and three hours later died at the Augustan hospital. Mr. Calvert was the representative of the firm in St. Louis, and had been ill for some time from a nervous disorder, caused by insomnia and dyspepsia. He was fifty-six years old, and quite wealthy.

New Man at the Helm.

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—The St. Louis and San Francisco railroad officials announce that T. W. Lillie Hugh has resigned as secretary and treasurer and that H. W. Gardner has been appointed in his stead, and will assume the duties November 1st. After November 1st the executive officials of the A. and P. and St. Louis and San Francisco railroad's will be at Boston.

Anti-Jewish Law.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—The director general of police, General Groesser, has instructed the police to rigidly adhere to the letter of the anti-Jewish law. The police are also directed to compel the families of Jews expelled from the country, or transfered from one portion of it to another, to depart with them.

YOUNG HOOSIER CHRISTIANS.

The Twenty-First Annual Convention of the State Y. M. C. A.

RICHMOND, Ind., Oct. 31.—Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, the first session of the twenty-first annual state convention of the Indiana Young Men's Christian association was held. It was in the nature of a praise service, and following this came the appointment of credential and nominating committees, followed by words of welcome from Dr. I. M. Hughes, pastor of the church in which the sessions are held, and President Mills, of Earlham college. Then came the permanent organization, with election of officers, and from 5 to 7 o'clock last evening an informal reception and lunch at the association rooms, after which, at the First Presbyterian church, was held the first night session, beginning at 7:30 o'clock with a song service, led by H. F. Williams, of Chicago. J. R. Mott, international college secretary, followed with an address on "The Possibilities of the College Work," and then the address of the evening was delivered by the Rev. Robert C. Coyle, of Chicago, on the subject, "The Influence of Young Men Upon the Future of America."

Following are the officers and committees chosen in the organization:

Officers—President, J. J. Mills, Richmond; vice-president, W. P. Pratt, Elkhart; secretary, J. F. Habbe, Evansville; assistant secretary, J. C. Kiefer, Indianapolis; second assistant secretary, D. E. Lucas, Indianapolis; treasurer, J. F. Wallick, Indianapolis.

Committee on state committee's report—J. L. C. Whitcomb, South Bend; Frank Felter, Huntington, and John Brown, Indianapolis.

Business committee—S. E. M. Colter, South Bend; Dr. W. Ballenger, Richmond, and George F. Dunbar, Crawfordsville.

Committees on resolutions—W. A. Bodell, Lafayette; George L. Daun, Evansville, and N. C. McCoy, Crawfordsville.

Devotional committee—Rev. A. Gilchrist, Richmond; Addison Tucker, Farlham, and Harry Goetz, New Albany.

Finance committee—L. H. Dunning, Indianapolis; J. W. Burns, Fort Wayne, and J. F. Wallick, Indianapolis.

NEGRO BRUTES

Lynched by a Mob for Murdering A Young Lady.

DALTON, Ga., Oct. 31.—The two negroes who had been followed 50 miles and caught, charged with the outrage and murder of Miss Baker in Bartol county were taken from the officers last night by a mob and carried into the country, and their dead bodies were found hanging from a tree limb at daylight. The finding of the dead body of the girl by her father was agonizing. Some distance from the house in a stretch of woodland and in the road leading to it the father discovered pools of blood and evidence of a fearful struggle. A bloody track was made in the road where the girl had been dragged. Farther on was a pile of brush, where a tree had been cut down. Lying under the brush, her face downward, bathed in her own blood was the mutilated body of the girl, her throat cut from ear to ear.

GIVE 'EM POLL BOOKS.

And Let Them Vote and Vote Against the Robber Tariff.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Secretary Noble has received a telegram from Governor Steele, of Oklahoma, stating that several counties in the territory were without polls books and other paraphernalia necessary for the election of a congressional delegate on November 4. The matter was referred to the first comptroller of the treasury, who decided that these articles could be purchased out of the contigent funds of the territory. A telegram to this effect has been sent to Governor Steele. The contigent fund of the territory now is only $2,390, which must suffice until the end of the fiscal year.

BEYOND HIS MEANS.

A Confidential Clerk Short in His Accounts.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 31.—Van Abel, the confidential clerk of the L. H. Harris Drug company, is missing, and his accounts are $1,000 short. For the past year he had lived beyond his means. Harris & Co. say they know where the young man is, but do not care to prosecute him. Abel made a full confession before he left and turned over to them his household goods and other valuables. This property will cover about one-third of the defalcation.

An Ohio Decision.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The supreme court to-day decided against the members of the board of public improvements. In the judgment of the court the petition does not make a case for injunction and the application was therefore denied. The court will hand down an opinion later.

Chicago Markets.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Wheat: Oct., $1.01¼; Dec., $1.03; May, $1.08¾. Corn: Dec., 53; May, 55¾. Oats: May, 47¼. Pork: Dec., $10.20; May, $12.87½. Lard: Dec., $6 37½; May, $7.02½@05. Ribs: Dec., $5.55; May, $6.37½.

Jockey Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The present meeting at Bennings has been so successful that the Jockey club has determined to give an extra meeting of six days next week.

AN OCEAN DISASTER!

Rumor Has It That Two Steamers Collided and Over Sixty Persons were Drowned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A rumor is current in shipping circles that a serious disaster has taken place. The rumor has it that a steamer, which sailed from this port yesterday, was in collision with another vessel on the New Jersey coast and that a large number of the passengers on the steamer were injured. It is said both vessels sank. The report has it that some sixty or seventy persons were drowned.

The steamer Hublot arrived here from Brazil. She reports that she picked up some of the crew of the Spanish steamer.

WILL LEARN HIM.

The Comte de Paris Has a Narrow Escape.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The Comte de Paris had a narrow escape from a horrible death during his journey from Montreal to New York yesterday. At Plattsburg the Count got off the train with others to get some lunch at the railroad station. Not understanding the signal for departure he remained on the platform until the train was fairly in motion. Then he made a spring for the high platform of the Wagner car. He missed the guard rail with one hand, but holding hard with the other swung in between the car platforms. For an instant it seemed inevitable that he would fall to the ground and be crushed to pieces. Several trainmen, however, rushed to the rescue and succeeded in hauling him on to the platform.

BRUTAL TREATMENT

To a Young Woman Confined in the Muncie Poor House.

MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 31.—Lottie Johnson, a young woman about twenty-five years of age, who has no home, was admitted to the Delaware county infirmary about years ago. The girl was healthy in every way except that she was subject to epileptic fits. On the 25th of August last she was taken to the Richmond asylum. She had been there but a short time when she was discharged as cured. When she returned to the infirmary she complained of being sore, and upon investigation the fact was revealed that she had been whipped, her body, from head to foot, being black and blue, and in places the bruises were running sores. She relates many cases of outrageous treatment while there.

ESCAPES FROM SIBERIA.

A Young Russian Who Has Been Imprisoned for Fourteen Years.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—There has arrived in this city a young Russian, named Ketchosky, who made his escape from Siberia after having been imprisoned in that country for fourteen years. When he was but eighteen years of age he was arrested in Vitna on suspicion of having revolutionary documents in his possession and of being identified with a conspiracy at the time. Many hardships and perils attended his flight from Siberia. The fear that by so doing he may endanger the safety of comrades left behind will restrain Mr. Ketchosky from at present publishing the narrative of his flight and escape.

AT A DANCE

A Bloody Row Ensues and One Man is Killed.

CARTHAGE, Ill., Oct. 31.—During a country dance near here Wednesday night a bloody row was caused by a young man named Moses Printy, who had been ordered out of the house. Fifty couples engaged in the affray. Knives, brick-bats, sticks and chairs were the weapons. Joseph Munson was probably fatally stabbed and Moses Printy was also seriously cut. There were no arrests.

The Ceritoria Case.

PIERRE, S. D., Oct. 31.—Application was yesterday filed with the state supreme court for a rehearing in the famous Ceritoria case. It is now claimed by the attorneys for the commissioners that new phases of the case, new authorities, etc., have been discovered that will prove to the court beyond question the wisdom of sustaining the commissioners in establishing voting precincts in Sterling and Nowling counties.

Goes to Prison.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—After twenty hours deliberation the jury in the trial of Actor Charles Crowmly Webster, at 11:15 this morning came into court with a verdict of guilty of manslaughter in the first degree, which means a term of imprisonment for the old actor of not less than five years nor more than twenty.

Horrible Find.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 31.—While Geo. Kreen and a companion were hunting near Forest City, they found a sack in which was the body of a child. A mark on the head showed where the blow was struck that killed it. The authorities are investigating the mystery.

May be Mistaken.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Ex-Governor Baldwin, of Michigan, who is in Washington, says there is no question of the ability of the republicans to elect the state ticket in Michigan this fall. He says the democrats will not get more than two congressmen.

FIRE BUGS

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 31.—This city has suffered severely recently from the work of fire bugs, and Wednesday night fires broke out in four different parts of the city. In one instance three families barely escaped with their lives. Ferdinand Escher was arrested on suspicion and other arrests will follow.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 31.—At 1:50 o'clock this morning fire was discovered burning fiercely in the large frame building at No. 1,417 Third avenue, West Troy. There were four families who occupied the building, sleeping within, and they were only awakened in time to escape death in the flames. The building was left in complete ruin before the fire could be checked, although the alarm was sounded promptly, and the fire department responded quickly. The building was owned by Solomon Wickes. The amount of insurance of the estimate of loss has not been ascertained.

DEATH OF PATRICK M'CANN.

A Popular Young Man Summoned to His Last Rest.

Patrick McCann died at his home, 65 Grand street, at 9 o'clock this morning, after a brief illness with typhoid fever. The deceased was twenty-four years old, and was the son of John McCann, the well known contractor, and a brother of Maggie McCann, of F. J. Gruber's cigar manufactory. The young man worked for his father. He was a deserving and popular, and a hard worker. He was especially liked for his willingness to do favors and accomplish good for others. He was a member of the young men's sodality. The sudden summons of Mr. McCann, upon the very threshold of a useful life, will cause universal sorrow and regret, and the members of the bereaved family have the sympathy of a large number of friends.

The funeral of Patrick McCann will occur at 1 o'clock Sunday, from the Cathedral.

ANOTHER LEPER.

A Genuine Case Discovered at Chester, Pennsylvania.

CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 31.—A genuine case of leprosy has been discovered here and there is consequently much excitement. Dr. Evans received a call from a Swede named John Anderson, last week, and not being able to diagonise the case to his own satisfaction he sent the man to the University hospital at Philadelphia. There the doctors pronounced the case as one of leprosy. Anderson will be sent to the county alms house at Lima, Pa., where he will be confined in a separate building until death releives him of the loath some disease.

THE WHISKY TRUST.

Many of the Wholesale Dealers Rebel Against It.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 31.—Many wholesale dealers and jobbers have been quite free in their expression of dissatisfaction recently with the manner in which the whisky trust was managing the whisky-making business, and, as a consequence, controlling the business and dictating to the dealers. This rebellion took definite form yesterday in the incorporation of the Central Distilling company. The capital is $150,000 and a site at Rock Springs has already been secured for the erection of a plant.

OUR POPULATION.

The Official Returns Make It 62,480,540.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The census office to-day announced the population of the United States to be 62,480,540. These figures are exclusive of white persons in Indian territory, Indians on reservations and Alaska.

American Coal Trade.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Consul Turner, at St. Thomas, N. B., has made report to the state department in regard to the American coal trade. The report says that during the past year twenty-three steamers arrived at St. Thomas, with 25,577 tons of coal from the United States. During the previous year twenty-two sailing vessels arrived at St. Thomas with coal, fifteen from Great Britain, and seven from the United States.

Anderson's Eighth Factory.

ANDERSON, Oct. 31.—A large carriage hardware factory from Mansfield, O., has been located here by a liberal donation of money and land, and the buildings are to be put up at once. This makes the eighth factory that is now under construction at Anderson.

Missing Man.

JOLIET, Ill., Oct. 31.—A week ago E. A. Beatty, of this city, went to Chicago, having in his possession a considerable sum of money, and nothing has been heard from him since. Beatty left his wife and family in straightened circumstances. He has always led a respectable life and his friends think some harm has befallen him.

Body Found.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 31.—A telegram from Ogden, Utah, announcing that the body of Detective James Murphy, of this city, who so mysteriously disappeared from there some weeks ago, has been found near that place.

H. Calvin, Bryan, O., and W. D. Tyler, New York, are at the Aveline.

A WICKED TRIO.

The Robbers of the Heller's Corners Postoffice Run Down and Now in Jail.

About four weeks ago the postoffice at Heller's Corners, this county, was robbed. At midnight the intruders, two in number, forced an entrance into the house of Phillip Hathaway, the postmaster, while a confederate stood guard on the outside of the house, and at the point of a revolver Mrs. Hathaway was compelled to emerge from her bed and procure all the money they had, about $25, while the postmaster himself was covered with a weapon in the hand of the other villian, and ordered to remain quiet, under penalty of death.

The matter was reported to Sheriff Viberg and he soon placed under arrest Tom McCullough, of Churubusco, for complicity in the robbery. McCullough is now in jail under $5,000 bonds. The sheriff and his deputies, after careful work, found what they considered convincing proof that the other guilty parties were Edward Carter, of Columbia City, and Hammond Baker, of Churubusco, men who have not had enviable reputations for a time past. The authorities at both places were notified. Yesterday Sheriff Hollopeter, of Whitley county, discovered the whereabouts of Carter and Baker in Columbia City and after an exciting chase placed them both under arrest. Sheriff Viberg was notified and he sent his deputy, Tom Wilkinson, to Columbia City to take the prisoners into custody, and they were brought home and are now in the county jail.

AN INSANE KING

Sits Upon the Throne of Holland--His Bodily Health is Good.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 30.—It has become known that the malady from which the king of Holland suffers is entirely of a mental nature. In fact, his majesty is insane. Physically his health is perfectly sound. The story of his bodily illness was devised and maintained in order to prepare the way and prove the necessity for the establishment of a regency.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—It has been decided, according to advices from Amsterdam, that the Netherlands councillor of state will exercise ruling powers for a month, and if there is then no sign of improvement, Queen Emma will be formally invested with the regency. The prince of Nassau, heir to the throne of Luxemburg, and next to Princess Wilhelmina in line to the crown of Holland, has expressed himself as reluctant to again take the regency of Luxemburg, but will probably do so should the king of Holland, who is also sovereign of Luxemburg, remain incapacitated.

It is announced in St. Petersburg that the Russian government has sent a peremptory message to the porte demanding, among other things, more energetic reforms in the Christian provinces of Turkey. In Constantinople it is said that the police have secured evidence that Russian intrigue is at the bottom of Armenian agitation, but this is hardly probable, in view of the fact that the chief movers in the crusade against Christians in Armenia and other Christian provinces of Turkey, are among those in the enjoyment of the sultan's favor.

An agreement has been entered into between the London Dockers' union and the companies, whereby the threatened trouble has been averted for the present, at least. The details of the agreement are not definitely known, but it is understood that the compromise is almost as advantageous to the men as they could have desired as the result of a strike, while on the other hand the employers have staved off the loss of many thousands of pounds and a probable diversion of some of their business to other ports.

BROTHERHOOD TELEGRAPHERS

The Western Union is Too Much for Them.

OMAHA, Oct., 31.—The brotherhood telegraphers in this city have agreed to sign an agreement renouncing allegiance to that and all similar organizations, and with this understanding that they will again be taken in the services of the Western Union, one or two members of the brotherhood have been excepted, from this agreement, on account of their promiuence in the recent difficulty between the operators and the company.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31. — A prominent member of the local telegraph brotherhood, said yesterday, that at a meeting of Wednesday night the order agreed to surrender its charter in accession to the demands of the Western Union: "We could not stand the pressure," said this gentleman, "especially after St. Paul and St. Louis had surrendered." The Chicago brotherhood, which numbered between 300 and 400, is now a thing of the past.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—For Indiana: Fair weather; northerly winds, becoming variable; warmer Saturday.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, Antwerp, Ohio, October 28, by Rev. J. W. McClusky, Mr. William Nickols, of Fort Wayne, and Miss Sarah Lanning, of Antwep, Ohio.

CRIMINAL AND CIVIL.

A Batch of Cases in the Various Courts.

Samuel Kariger vs. Joseph Embry, the jury brought in a verdict of $644 for the plaintiff. The suit was heard in the circuit court and was on account.

An affidavit has been filed in Justice France's court, charging Wm. Seibert with provoking Henry Hermerler. The parties reside in "Nebraska."

Daniel Shaw et al. enter suit against Patrick Cox, on account; demand, $100.

Justice Taney heard the evidence in the proceedings of which Ada Dibbern was the defendant of a suit, charging her with provoking J. S. Petitt, the book agent. The case was dismissed.

In the Circuit court to-day, Warden & Morris argued for a new trial in the Scott-Wells suit.

K. J. Bauer has been given a judgment of $468.60, against Joseph A. Bauor et. al. on a foreclosure. The case was heard in the Circuit court.

August Henry, charged with assault on Louis Gibson will have a hearing before Justice Ryan at 4 p. m. to day.

Justice Ryan acquitted Henry Meyers of the charge of cruelty to animals.

The Western National bank sues the Central Mutual insurance company on an insurance policy. Peele & Taylor are attorneys.

WON THE PRIZE.

Master Guy Smith Gets the Pony in the Pumpkin Contest.

That enterprising clothing firm, Sam, Pete & Max, have for a short time past given each purchaser the privilege of guessing the number of seeds contained in a large pumpkin, and the first one guessing the correct number, or nearest to it, would be presented with the beautiful Shetland pony, which has been the object of much admiration in the show window for a week past. In the presence of representatives of the different city newspapers last evening, the pumpkin was cut open and its contents carefully dissected. It was found to contain 557 seeds. There were several guesses of that number, but the first lucky one was held by Master Guy Smith, seven year old son of Clarence G. Smith, of the Newspaper union, whose home is at 344 West Washington street. He was presented with his prize and is the happiest boy in Fort Wayne to-day. The whole affair was conducted in a fair and impartial manner.

JURY DISAGRAED.

The Closely Contested Fahler Will Case Not Decided.

The jury in the closely contested will case of Thomas Fahler, of Lebanon, Pa., against Catharine Fahler et al., of Wells county, reported a disagreement at noon to-day and Judge Chapin discharged them. This case was to set aside the will of the late Mr. Fahler, of Wells county, who bequeathed his estate valued at $30,000 to his sister. The plaintiff to the suit claims to be the son and rightful heir. The proceedings were technical and interesting. Both sides were represented by strong legal talent.

THROUGH A HATCHWAY.

Samuel Golden Has a Bad Fall, Resulting in Injuries.

This morning Samuel Golden, a laborer for Jules Remus, the South Broadway contractor, climbed into the hay loft of the barn on the premises of his employer, to procure the morning's feed for the horses. He forgot his bearings and fell through the opening he had only a moment previously emerged from, and he fell to the hard floor beneath, fracturing two ribs and spraining his back. The injured man was conveyed to his home, 57 West Superior street, where he will be confined to the bed for several weeks.

UNION SERVICES

Of the Christian Endeavor Societies of Fort Wayne.

The union services of the Christian Endeavor societies of Fort Wayne were held last evening at the Congregational church. A very interesting program was carried out, which included music and papers read by the Misses Grace Waldo, Adah Bittenger and Mollie Buckwalter, a solo by Miss Mary Brokaw, three minute talks by city pastors and an exercise, "On to Evansville," by E. F. Biddle.

MAY COME HERE.

Big File Works Talking of Removing to This City.

Mr. Andrew Finegan of Sing Sing, N. Y., representing the Arcade File works of that city, (an old established manufactory of nearly half a century,) has had several conferences with the representative business men here, relative to the removing of that industry to this city.

Ex-President Hayes.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 31.—Ex-President Hayes arrived in town last night and to-day paid a visit to the John Hopkins university and hospital.

He said this morning that his visit was to consult with Dr. Gilman, president of John Hopkin's university in regard to matters connected with the Slater fund for the education of children in the South. He leaves for Cleveland to-day.

OUR NEW CITIZENS.

The Names of Some of Those Who Will be Brought to This City by the Electric Light Works.

The magnitude of the plant that is to be removed from Brooklyn to this city by the Fort Wayne Electric company, is underestimated by many persons. The fact is that the entire lot of machinery used at Brooklyn in the manufacture of the Wood arc electric lamp and all appurtenances to the works will be shipped, to be re-set at the parent plant in this city. The shipments have already begun. The Wood lamp is used exclusively by the Fort Wayne Electric company in all their arc light contracts, making quick [illegible] ready production of the apparatus from the works necessary. Manager Wood has telegraphed S. C. Lumbard that a large number of skilled artisans will move to Fort Wayne immediately upon the completion of the removal about November 15. Of these there are twenty-four men who have families, and who will, therefore, require homes.

THE SENTINEL has learned that notwithstanding the extensive residence building that has been in progress all of the past season and now continues, desirable homes are not to be procured so readily as might be expected. However, Mr. Lumbard promises to find twenty-five or thirty attractive and comfortable homes and have them in readiness for the new comers. Persons having houses to rent will confer a favor by informing Mr. Lumbard. Aside from the families there will also come here twenty-five single gentlemen and a number of heads of families, which will increase the demand for rooms and board. To this contingent of new comers there should be given a warm welcome. When they come, encourage them to stay by a spirit of congeniality and friendliness, for it is such accessions as these that add to the thrift of a city. It will add that many more to our 42,000 population and they will undoubtedly prove good citizens, too. A list has been forwarded to show who have decided to move here, but there will be more of them.

The list of men with families, showing the number in each family, is as follows: I. Birkner, 3; P. J. Dormer, 4; P. Bosworth, 5; F. L. Powers, 3; P. J. Donahue, 4; J. McGrath, 5; E. C. Yale, 4; H. Robbins, 2; A. J. Schlichter, 3; J. C. Lott, 3; J. Allen, 4; A. Miller, 3; F. Bliebtreu, 4; F. Whaley, 4; P. Jenson, 4; T. Thompson, 4; J. Vliet, 2; C. Muller, 4; F. L. Gardner, 3; J. F. Richenberg, 4; C. H. Worth, 4; L. Carleston, 3; P. Schmidt, 3; H. Evans, 3.

The name of single men coming, so far as learned, are as follows: F. Jeansin, George Wood, T. P. Searles, Paul Wood, O. Hult, T. Houser, W. L. Jenkins, M. Levi, A. Fairchild, W. E. Johnston, W. Coles, George Schooley, T. Spence, R. Brocken, J. Grimm, M. Nestor, O. Lindloff, C. Deber, J. Dieter, ——— Nelson.

Among the number who will come and leave their families at Brooklyn for the present, are H. Ruppert, 3; J. Graulich, 3; J. Bauer, 3; P. McClellan, 4; C. A. Rasenfelder, 8.

The occupations of each one is set opposite the name in the list submitted by Manager Wood. It includes several foremen, a number of expert electricians and fine mechanics. The rest of the force required in the new shop will be employed in this city.

St. Paul M. E. Church Revival.

The revival meetings being held at the St. Paul M. E. church, are growing in interest, and attendance with each passing evening. Last evening the attendance was large, and a service of great spiritual power was held. Within the last few evenings there have been five accessions to the church, and three conversions. Services this evening beginning at 7.30.

WILL IT RETURN?

Much Speculation as to the Probable Re-appearance of Grip.—What Certain Symptoms Mean.

There can be little doubt that the "grip" which played such sad havoc last year, has not only left its effects upon a great many, but seems to be returning in various localities. All physicians report that there is an alarming prevalence of heavy colds, accompanied by all grip symptoms. Many people take cold easier than before; others are troubled with weak eyes, headaches &c. These things not only come to those who were laid low by the grip last year, but are also visiting many who escaped. Pains, neuraliga, lassitude, all the symptoms are present.

Every leading physician who treated the grip last season perscribed stimulants. The weakening, depressed state of the body demanded this, and there are numerous cases on record where pure whisky saved the lives of men and women who were fast drifting toward the grave. As in all other things, however, the purity of an article determines its value, and to say that ordinary whiskey will assist is absured. It is only pure whisky, of medicinal quality, which can be made available, and it is in this respect that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has shown itself to be immeasurably superior to any other known stimulant. The attention of the best physicians has been drawn to this truth, and the fact that they are prescribing this whiskey constantly, is the highest praise they could bestow. Prof. Joseph Farrish says: "We know that whiskey will steady the heart, slow the pulse, calm excitement, and we ought to use it." Be very careful, however, that you secure only the genuine, and such as has, by years of popularity, been proven purest and best. In other words use only Duffy's.

BITS OF NEWS.

Small Talk Indulged in by Our Railroad Reporter After a Trip of the Busy Centers.

The clerks in the shops are busy making out their monthly reports.

J. M. Osborne, division freight agent of the Wabash road, is in the city.

H. Laible, of the Pittsburg car shop, is off duty on account of sickness.

J. Johnson, of the Pittsburg car shop, is off duty on account of sickness.

P. Kucher is now working on the wheel press in the Pittsburg car shop.

Supt. J. B. Barnes, of the Wabash road, is in the city for a few days' visit.

Some of the men in the Pittsburg copper shop, are working thirteen hours a day.

G. Anderson, engineer on the Pittsburg road, is off duty on a few days' vacation.

J. K. Sage, traveling freight agent of the Rock Island Route, was in the city yesterday.

H. J. Woehnker, engineer on the Pittsburg road, is off duty on a few days' vacation.

Master Mechanic G. L. Potter, of the Pittsburg shops, has returned from a trip to Altoona, Pa.

Several of the boys in the shops attended the City band dance at the Princess rink last evening.

Several coke stoves have temporarily been placed in the Bass moulding rooms during this cold spell.

Fred Miller, of the Bass machine shop. is working at the Fort Wayne Iron works for a few days.

Thomas Adkins, of New Haven, was in the city yesterday. He was formerly a section hand on the Nickel Plate in this city.

Joseph Harkenrider, of the east Pittsburg shops, who was injured a few days ago has recovered and resumed his position.

Foreman G. H. Judy, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, has returned from a few days' business trip to Altoona, Pa.

The Horton Manufactoring company's works is closed down to-day and to-morrow to place a large line shafting in the main building.

Arbor Stevens, target tender in the Pittsburg yards at South Chicago, arrived in the city this afternoon to visit his family on Oliver street.

W. G. Page, of the Pittsburg round house, will go to New Haven to-morrow and Fred Tegtmeyer, of the same department, will go to Arcola.

The Nickle Plate road at the present time is hauling a great deal of live stock. Yesterday one hundred cars composing three sections were taken east.

The Bass works shipped a huge boiler to the firm of H. Baker, at Raber, Ind., this morning, and two to the National Forge and Iron works at Chicago.

Wm. English, passenger brakeman on the Pittsburg road, has returned from his wedding trip. He visited at Chicago and several large western citie.

Engine No. 332 has been turned out of the Wabash shops after a general repair, and engine No. 352 has been placed in the shops for a general overhauling.

J. H. Benigin, of the electric light works, has resigned his position to accept one with the vice gang in the Pittsburg machine shop. He formerly worked in the same department.

Owen Barry, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, will give a Hallowe'en party at his home this evening. He has engaged the Nikolai string band for the occasion and a pleasant time is anticipated.

William McPhail, master mechanic of the shops of the Lake Erie and Western at Lafayette, will retire from that position to-morrow to take the office of master mechanic of the Muncie shops in this city.

General Superintendent Mogee, of the Wabash has issued a circular announcing that the annual track inspection will take place during the week beginning November 17, and will include the seven months work from April 1 to October 31. The section showing the highest general average on each division road master's territory will be awarded a first premium of $35; the one showing the next highest will be awarded a second premium of $25. Yard sections will be classed together and allowed to compete for a first and second premium independent of the road sections.

J. A. Nolan, sr., of the Pittsburg machine shop, who had one of his fingers mashed so badly a few weeks ago that amputation was necessary, has fully recovered and will resume his position next Monday.

Passenger Engineer Thomas Telley, of the limited passenger train on the Pittsburg road, who was injured a few weeks ago in a wreck in the yards in Chicago, has recovered and is able to be out on the street.

Wm. Lonergan, of the machine department of the Kerr Murray works, left to-day for Cecil, Ohio. When he gets there he will disappear in the large woods of that section of the country and hunt wild game, returning next Tuesday.

The coal premiums of the Pittsburg road has been given out for the month. It shows that J. S. Christy, engineer, and Fireman E. Crawford, received the highest on the passenger, and Engineer S. P. Craig, and Fireman B. S. Hodges received the highest on freight.

Harry Crawford, sr., says it is the intention to build the Indiana Midland road to Paris, Ill., some forty miles beyond its present terminal. When he gets ready to build the extension he says there will be no trouble in securing the money to do it.

The Pennsylvania company is disposed to make extensive improvements at Logansport, but is baffled by adverse action of the citizens through the city council, and by the exorbitant prices owners of ground they desire to purchase have placed on their property.

E. B. White, of the erecting gang in the Pittsburg machine shop, had the great toe of his left foot badly mashed while on duty this morning. He was handling a large piece of iron which slipped from his grasp with the above results. He will be detained from work for several days.

Conductor Mart Ryan, who was killed on the Pennsylvania line near Knightstown on Monday, allowed an accident policy in the railway officials' and conductors' association for $5,000 to expire about three weeks ago, and on Saturday last intended to attend to its renewal, but neglected it. He carried a $2,000 policy in the Catholic Knights.

John Schmidt, the fireman on the the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, who was injured recently at Decatur, was in the city to see his attending physician, Dr. E. J. McOscar, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Schmidt is staying at his home in Avilla, and is recovering the use of a foot, which it was first thought would have to be amputated.

A bad wreck occurred early this morning on the Pittsburg road near Bucyrus, Ohio, in which thirteen cars were thrown from the track. A freight train was going along at a rapid rate of speed, when the trucks on one of the cars gave way and jumped the track. The cars behind it were piled up on top of the broken one and the track was completely blockaded. Several of the cars were broken to pieces and the freight was scattered promiscuously. No. 5, the limited passenger train on that road, due here at 5:35 a. m., was compelled to back up from that place to Crestline and go around on another road. The wrecking train from this city is on the scene. None of the trainmen were seriously injured.

THERE should be no absenteeism among democrats on November 4.

IF you know of any democratic voter who is likely to be away on election day, send for him or report his name to the central committee.

THERE are many republicans who believe that the increase in tariff taxation occasioned by the passage of the McKinley bill is wrong. Under the new law they can vote their convictions without molestation.

SO THAT all persons may know how to vote, we inclose in to-day's SENTINEL a sample ticket, giving all the candidates, state and county. The instructions to voters are published below the tickets. Read them carefully, so that you may understand how to vote on election day.

SOME voters seem to have the impression that in voting a straight ticket the others are torn off and thrown away. The entire sheet of tickets is to be voted, but only the ticket counted that is stamped before the title. Never scratch or deface a ticket except with the stamp in the square before the name.

THE new election law provides for the appointment of two deputy sheriffs for each precinct, and they are entrusted with the enforcement of the law and are given unusual powers to arrest voters for violations of the law. These deputies are appointed by the sheriff, at the recommendation of the chairmen of the two county committees.

THE election for state, district and county officers takes place next Tuesday, November 4. Democrats should bear in mind that it is the most important election that has taken place for years. The new method of voting is simple and easy, and democrats owe it to themselves and to their country to go to the polls and vote. It is the vote in the ballot box that counts.

COLONEL VILAS estimates the cost of tariff restriction to the people of the United States at $1,000,000,000 a year, less than one-fourth of which is for the support of the government and more than three-fourths for the benefit of the favored classes. It is a burden of $50 a year, on the average, upon every person engaged in a gainful occupation. For the support of the government, $220,000,000; for tribute, $780,000,000. But it may be asked, What becomes of all this tribute? If consumers pay it, somebody must get it. Who has it? Where is it? Colonel Vilas quotes Thomas G. Shearman's estimate that 10,000 people own $30,000,000,000 of the wealth of the United States, or not far from one half of it. That would account for all that is claimed to have been extorted from the people under cover of the tariff, and leave $15,000,000 or so for fortunes accumulated in other ways. Much of the money that has been extorted has been spent by those who have received it, and vastly more has been absorbed in wasteful and unprofitable production. It is not difficult to account for all the tribute which, according to Colonel Vilas' estimate, has been drawn from the pockets of the people under cover of the tariff laws.

THE reason urged by the advocates of the McKinley robber tariff bill for its passage was that it would increase the wages of workingmen. How many manufacturing establishments in Fort Wayne have increased the wages of their employes? We pause for a reply.

THE republican papers are warning their readers against "political sensations" sprung by the democrats at the last hour. It is the cry of "stop thief," made by the thief himself. We don't know of anybody who springs more of these false stories during the last hours of the campaign than the republicans, who know then that it is too late to deny them. Look out for them and do not be deceived.

THE candidate of the republican party for congress, Mr. Jaynes N. Babcock, was in the city Wednesday night and addressed an audience of fifteen voters and ten small boys at the Old Church in the Eighth ward. He felt severely the shabby manner in which he was treated by the leading republicans of the city, who did not turn out to hear him, and only spoke for fifteen or twenty minutes. The republicans ought to apologize to their candidate for the shameful way in which they treated him.

IS THE TARIFF A TAX?

Well, let us see:

The Grocers' Criterion, published at Chicago, is not a partisan newspaper, but is a business guide and is sent out to dealers in all lines of goods.

Under the heading "The New Tariff Bill" it has in its last issue some very interesting matter treating upon the increased prices on nearly all lines of goods. We quote:

"The rates of ready made clothing are advanced."

"The duty on linen shirts and other wearing apparel is increased from 40 to 55 per cent., and on lacings, edgings, etc, from 40 to 60 per cent."

"Washed wools of the first class, pay twice the rates of unwashed wools. The rates on woolen and worsted yarns and cloths are heavily increased, paying generally from 10 cents a pound to 33 cents per pound. The rates on blankets, hats and flannel underwear are also increased, as well as women's and children's dress goods, coat linings, webbings, bindings, braids, etc. On fine carpets the rates are increased from 45 cents to 60 cents per square yard, and on cheaper grades the increase is greater in proportion."

Oh, yes; on the cheaper grades, that the poorer classes have to buy, the increase is greater than on the very fine ones that the millionaires are able to indulge in. This tariff was "revised by its friends," you know, and that simply means that the millionaires dictated how it should be revised, and while they are let down easy the load is saddled onto the middle and poorer classes.

"In glassware and crookery there are some increase on the rates of common-brand earthenware, but the rates on china, porcelain, etc., are unchanged."

"An interview with Robert M. Fair, of Marshall, Field & Co., elicited the fact that in the McKinley Bill the tariff on dry goods, generally speaking, would be advanced from 10 to 25 per cent, and that the prices to consumers would be advanced accordingly." * * * "The tariff is increased on almost every article which they import, silks being an exception."

Again you see the effect of this tariff as "revised by its friends." Silks, for the rich, are in no wise increased, but on the cheaper grades, the necessities of the masses, the tax is raised 10 to 25 per cent.

"'Tin plate has advanced $3.50 per box,' said Mr. Butler, of Sherman, Tangenberg & Co."

How do you like it, you who want a tin roof, to pay this needles extra into the pockets of the millionaires?

"The drug trade regrets very much the passage of the bill."

"Mr. E. H. Pitkin, of Pitkin & Brooks, informs us that the prices of china, earthenware and glassware have already risen in consequence of the passage of this bill, the probabilities being a still further rise."

"In clothing, Ed. L. Huntley & Co., say that every article used in the manufacture of clothing has been taxed heavily by the new tariff bill, and that a suit of clothes previously costing the consumer $20 will now be advanced to $27.50 or $30."

And still "the tariff is not a tax," they say.

Reader, don't get excited; just go to bed after reading this from a non partisan trade journal, and after you sleep over it then say candidly whether the tariff isn't a tax, and a mighty heavy one, and whether it isn't time to elect a congress that will have the tariff "revised by its enemies," instead of its friends.

THIS IS HALLOWE'EN.

Which Has Been Celebrated Through Centuries—The Prince of Mischief Abroad in the Land.

To-night is Hollowe'en and around it clusters more Old World superstitions than begirt the other 364 nights that go to make up the year.

The small boy knows it best as "cabbage night," and to him it means a round of fun. He has been keeping track of it. He knows it comes with darkness and for days he has been keeping his optics on the cabbage heads in the back yards of his neighbors.

The small boys knows where all the cabbage in the neighborhood, for squares around, is kept, and as soon as night has stolen over the earth he will be out with his companions, carefully climbing over the back yard fences, and stealthfully approaching the mound where the cabbage is buried. It is no use to watch him, for if it is there he will have it if he has to stay up all night, and after he has it in his grasp he is off on his round of pranks.

The readers of THE SENTINEL know how he will put in the night. They were all young once and as they peruse this Hallowe'en article, memories of those old-time days, when they were out on the All Hallows Eve lark, will crowd in on them thick and fast, and when the "bump," "bump" of the cabbage head comes against the door, they will say, "Oh, it's boys. They are out for a little fun. Let them have it."

Gates are carried off from their hinges, and the posts are ornamented with hideous, grinning faces, made of a grotesque pumpkin, hollowed out, and containing a lighted candle. Bonfires are built and potatoes, eggs and apples roasted on the hot coals. Door bells are mysteriously rung and the king of misrule and his retinue are abroad in the land.

But the Hallowe'en is not now what it once was. The boyish pranks of twenty, thirty and forty years ago (many of them) seem to be unknown to the boys of to-day and there isn't one one hundredth part of the fun crowded into the night now as there was then. Many of the older readers of THE SENTINEL could tell the boys of to-day Hallowe'en stories that would "make their hair stand on end," but it is best, perhaps, that those olden-time tricks (some of them mean and cruel in their nature) should be discontinued, and we will not tell more of them now for fear the boys will be tempted to repeat them to-night in Fort Wayne.

There used to be a time when the night was full of superstitions, and men, women and children believed that on All Hallow Eve disembodied spirits visited the earth again; that devils, witches and fairies were abroad; that supernatural influences existed everywhere, but these old-time superstitions passed away with the advent of railways, telegraph, and, most of all, with the enlightening influences of the newspapers, and now the night is mostly (among those who desire to celebrate it) given to amusements of a social nature, either at home or in some public hall. Even the boyish pranks grow to be less common, and bye and bye, perhaps, they will cease all together.

Hallowe'en, or more properly All Hallows Eve, is the night before All Saints' day and comes on October 31st, being kept as a vigil by some churches for the religious ceremonies of the following day, November 1st, when honor is done in the sanctuaries to all the saints. This is its real signification now, and yet in many countries the old superstitions still prevail and we give a few of them.

In the north of England this is "Nut-crack-Night," and everywhere nuts and apples are in demand for consumption or for divination. In Ireland the same customs exist as in the sister isle; the lads and lasses gather by the blazing fire of peat and bogwood; the hearth is cleanly swept and each pair of lovers put two nuts before the fire; if either jumps the party represented is sure to give the other the mitten.

Ducking for apples is another ceremony peculiar to Hallowe'en. Apples are placed in a tub of water, and often coins, and the attempts to catch them in the mouth produce tremendous mirth. So, too, does the "snapapple cross"; apples and lighted candles are placed on the opposite ends of a wooden cross, suspended by a string, and the attempts to rescue an apple with the mouth is generally rewarded by catching the twirling candle.

Three plates, containing earth, water and a ring, are placed on the table, the fortune seeker is led blindfolded, and his selection dooms him to death, exile or marriage within the ensuing year. A somewhat similar form of divination exists in Scotland.

"Popping" is a custom as popular in America as in the old country, where it originated. One girl heats a shovel red hot. Two chestnuts are then named after two of the company, as Jennie and Jack. In a few minutes they begin to sputter, and when they pop with much noise and confusion it is judged by the method of popping how the love affair will terminate. If Jennie pops away it is surmised that it is meant as an invitation for Jack to follow and capture her, but if Jack pops he is not for her. If the two pop side by side or away together, it is the happiest of auguries. If the pair of chestnuts burn up into a flame and consume together it foretells a happy married future.

Eating the apple—This first demands a walk through a long corridor, when, if the young lady does not see her lover, she must return backward, going to her room and eating the apple before a looking glass while she combs her hair. She will then see her future husband's face over her shoulder.

Paring an apple in one long paring, throwing it over the shoulder and letting it fall is a favorite spell of the night. If it falls so as to resemble a letter, that will be the first letter of a coming lover's name.

The Hallowe'en Mirror—This is always a moonlight night performance, as the spell is assisted by the spectral light of the moon. The young woman looking into the glass must munch an apple at the same time. As the moonbeams fall across the glass she will see a face beside her own, which will be that of the man she is to marry. This test is very trying one, and many cases have been known where a delicate girl has fainted from fright, her imagination supplying the expected face.

The Three Loggies—These are three bowls of water placed on the hearth, a custom provalent in Scotland and referred to by Burns. One is filled with clear water, one with turbid water and one is empty. Whoever dips must be blindfolded and use the left hand only. If it is a maiden and she dips into the clear water she will marry a young man and be prosperous. If she, however, puts her hand in the turbid bowl her husband will be a widower, and she will have more or less trouble, but if she dips into the empty dish, never a husband will she have at all.

A Scottish superstition was:—The girl would take her ball of knitting worsted and at midnight, standing on the edge of an old lime kiln, would throw it down in the devil's name, and commencing to wind up the end would say, "I wind, who holds?" when a voice was supposed to answer, "I hold." Many fatal accidents from shock followed these incantations, caused probably by some of the lads who knew that such a visit would be made.

But when all the sports were finished, then came the crowning terror to the rustic mind—the journey home and the possibility of meeting the dreaded "Phooka," the hairy, misshapen spirit steed that on this particular night was permitted to roam around and decoy wearied pedestrians to mount him.

Some of these sports may be repeated to night among our young folks and much merriment will ensue. All in all, with the repetition of these pranks and the parties, dances and night "raids" of the small boy Hallowe'en will not go unobserved in Fort Wayne.

To morrow will be All Saints day. As early as the fourth century the Greeks kept on the first Sunday after Pentecost the feast of all Martyrs and Saints, and there is still a sermon of St. John Chrysostom delivered on that day. The feast was introduced in the west by Pope Boniface IV. The feast was at first kept on the 13th of May, but the day was changed to the 1st of November by Gregory IV. This feast has been instituted by the church to honor all the saints who reign in heaven.

Next Sunday will be All Souls day. It is a solemn commemoration of and prayer for all the souls in purgatory. This feast is kept on the 2d day of November. This feast owes its origin to Odilo Abbot, of Clugny, who instituted this solemnity for all the monasteries of his order in 998.

Both days will be religiously observed by the Catholics in this city.

The forty hour devotions began at the Cathedrel to-day at 9 o'clock. Father Ambrose, of Cincinnati, a Franciscan, preached in the forenoon and will be heard again this evening. To-morrow the principal services will be at 5, 7:30, 10 a. m., and in the evening at 7:30, closing with a sermon, procession and benediction on Sunday evening.

HOW TO VOTE.

If you want to vote a straight ticket, stamp the square to the left of the name of the party for whose candidates you wish to vote; that is, you should stamp the square to the left of the words "Democratic Ticket." Be careful about this, some think that they should stamp the square to the left of the name of the secretary of state in order to vote the straight ticket; but a ticket stamped that way would be counted for the secretary of state only.

Don't forget that the way to vote a straight ticket is to stamp the square at the left of the words "Democratic Ticket."

Again—You can vote a mixed ticket in either of two ways:

1. You can do it by stamping the square to the left of the name of each candidate for whom you want to vote on whatever list of candidates it may be.

2. Or you can stamp the square to the left of the name of your party, and also to the left of a person on another ticket for whom you wish to vote.

DOES ADVANCE PRICES.

Mr. W. E. McDermut in his speech to the wage earners of this city, delivered at the circuit court room last Thursday evening on the tariff said;

It is undoubtedly true that the effect of the tariff is to enable manufacturers to charge higher prices. This is illustrated within the present month since the McKinley bill went into effect. All over the country we hear of prices going up in this branch of business and in that—in fact, in every branch of industry except wages. I hold in my hand a letter written by a New York jobber to a dry goods firm in Fort Wayne, which says that certain black goods heretofore ordered, cannot be sent, because the old stock is exhausted, and the same goods now will advance on account of the tariff, from 42 cents to about 55 cents. The letter says that the manufacturers are already figuring to see how high they can advance their goods, and that in order to protect orders to be filled during the next thirty or forty days, merchants will have to put up a handsome margin. It says that, while the jobbers have the goods the merchants can get them without the advance, but that the manufacturers are holding back their stuff, and very few jobbers have much of a stock on hand. There is not one section in the whole McKinley bill which shows that the slightest consideration was given to the interest of labor. The bill is said to be a bill to reduce the revenue, and yet it is intended to increase taxation. How can a law reduce the revenue and at the same time increase taxation? I will tell you. By increasing the duties it discourages importations, thus reducing revenue, and at the same time permits the protected classes to increase prices, thus increasing the people's burdens.

PROTECTION POEM.

Sing a song, protection,
Monopolists are glad,
But the common people
Are looking very sad,
All the ports are open,
But nothing can come in,
Except the pauper labor,
To help us make our tin.

Rock a-bye baby, in the tree top,
Here comes McKinley, now cradle will stop,
'Till pa pays the tariff; no wonder you bawl,
For he puts up for baby and cradle and all.

HIBBARD'S "HERB EXTRACT,"

Its throne is in the tuneful hearts of hundreds of thousands of its users, who sing its praises and carry its renown from ocean to ocean. Join the throng and help shout the glad tidings of a people ransomed from the galling chains and terrible captivity of

HEREDITARY SCROFULA.

It's not the discovery of a heaven guided tramp, but an honest remedy with which one of the most skillful physicians of his day cured Mrs. Hibbard, over forty-five years ago, after she had been most terribly afflicted by hereditary blood disease, which consumed her nose and other parts of her face, and since her cure, (over forty-six years ago,) she has made the placing of this remedy before the public her life-long work. A circular giving a short history of her case will be sent on application.

It is not a cure-all, but is positively guaranteed in all cases of Blood and Skin diseases, such as Scrofula, Cancer, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, and Kidney and Liver Complaints. The remedy contains neither Mercury or Potash, but its properties are purely vegetable and harmless.

As a powerful invigorating Tonic, it helps the stomach and imparts strength and vitality to the entire system.

Mrs. Hibbard's reputation at home and abroad is sufficient evidence of her honesty of purpose. Although sixty-five years of age, she devotes her entire time to the alleviation of human suffering. Call on her or write, describing your case, and she will give you an honest opinion, and advice free of charge. The "Herb Extract" is for sale by all Druggists, at $1.00 per bottle, 6 for $5 00, or sent by express on receipt of price.

BIG FAILURE!

One of the Largest Wholesale Clothing Houses in Chicago Goes to the Wall.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Twenty-six confessions of judgments, aggregating $200,000, were filed in the circuit court to-day by Leopold Bros. & Co., the big wholesale clothing firm at 229 Franklin street. The confessions were for sums ranging from $2,000 to $25,000. Leopold Bros., & Co., are one of the largest firms of the kind in the city and the news of their trouble created great surprise in the wholesale clothing trade. The liabilities will aggregate $300,000. The firm was established in 1856 and did a business of about $1,000,000 a year. The tightness of the money market and slowness of collections are the reasons given for the failure. The real reason, however, is believed to be the reduction of their capital, caused by the death of two of the partners and the withdrawal of their money interests by their widows.

WILL THERE BE A STRIKE?

Indiana Miners Now Considering the Question at Terre Haute.

TERRE HAUTE, Oct. 31.—A delegates' convention of miners of the state is being held here to consider the proposed strike to-morrow. There are forty-six present, representing both the bituminous and block coal mines. The convention is being held under the auspices of the United Mineworkers' union, but delegates are present representing unorganized miners, who number about one-half of all in the state. The block-coal miners signed a yearly scale for 75 cents a ton the year around, beginning last May, and the bituminous miners signed for 70 cents. Always heretofore during the six months beginning on November 1 they have had a higher scale than during the summer six months, and miners who favor a strike if the 10 cents increase is not granted say the present scale was signed under duress.

THE WILDEST STORM

For Years Struck St. Johns Harbor Yesterday.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., Oct. 31.—The wildest storm for years struck St. Johns harbor yesterday. It was from the south-west, and therefore the shipping was protected by the breakwater. The velocity of the wind was forty-four miles an hour, with occasional gusts of greater violence. Serious damage has been done to the breakwater.

When the storm was at its height and hundreds were watching the waves breaking over the railway track at Union street, a terrific wind blast lifted Fred Munde, aged thirteen years, from the wharf into the raging sea. Fred Young, aged seventeen, who worked in a factory near by plunged in to rescue Munde and held him up for twenty minutes when the life buoy parted and both drifted out into Courtney bay.

Munde sank, but Young held on for about an hour in the raging sea, in sight of thousands, who could not help him. Finally he threw up his arms and went down. Both bodies were recovered last night when the tide went out.

ALASKA'S POPULATION

Is Estimated by the Census at Between 32,000 and 38,000.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Ivan Petroff, who superintended the census enumeration of Alaska, has arrived in Washington and is busily engaged on his report.

"The counting of the people is over with," said Mr. Petroff, "but all the returns are not yet in, and some will be delayed till next spring. From the data at my command I estimate the whole population to be between 35,000 and 38,000, about one seventh of whom are white people."

LEFT HIS WEALTH.

Ill Health Caused Him to Commit Suicide.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Wm. H. Calvert, a member of the firm of Vane, Calvert & Co., manufacturers of paints, at 201 Randolph street, shot himself through the head at six o'clock last evening, during a fit of despondency, and three hours later died at the Augustan hospital. Mr. Calvert was the representative of the firm in St. Louis, and had been ill for some time from a nervous disorder, caused by insomnia and dyspepsia. He was fifty-six years old, and quite wealthy.

New Man at the Helm.

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—The St. Louis and San Francisco railroad officials announce that T. W. Lillie Hugh has resigned as secretary and treasurer and that H. W. Gardner has been appointed in his stead, and will assume the duties November 1st. After November 1st the executive officials of the A. and P. and St. Louis and San Francisco railroad's will be at Boston.

Anti-Jewish Law.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—The director general of police, General Groesser, has instructed the police to rigidly adhere to the letter of the anti-Jewish law. The police are also directed to compel the families of Jews expelled from the country, or transfered from one portion of it to another, to depart with them.

YOUNG HOOSIER CHRISTIANS.

The Twenty-First Annual Convention of the State Y. M. C. A.

RICHMOND, Ind., Oct. 31.—Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, the first session of the twenty-first annual state convention of the Indiana Young Men's Christian association was held. It was in the nature of a praise service, and following this came the appointment of credential and nominating committees, followed by words of welcome from Dr. I. M. Hughes, pastor of the church in which the sessions are held, and President Mills, of Earlham college. Then came the permanent organization, with election of officers, and from 5 to 7 o'clock last evening an informal reception and lunch at the association rooms, after which, at the First Presbyterian church, was held the first night session, beginning at 7:30 o'clock with a song service, led by H. F. Williams, of Chicago. J. R. Mott, international college secretary, followed with an address on "The Possibilities of the College Work," and then the address of the evening was delivered by the Rev. Robert C. Coyle, of Chicago, on the subject, "The Influence of Young Men Upon the Future of America."

Following are the officers and committees chosen in the organization:

Officers—President, J. J. Mills, Richmond; vice-president, W. P. Pratt, Elkhart; secretary, J. F. Habbe, Evansville; assistant secretary, J. C. Riefer, Indianapolis; second assistant secretary, D. E. Lucas, Indianapolis; treasurer, J. F. Wallick, Indianapolis.

Committee on state committee's report—J. L. C. Whitcomb, South Bend; Frank Felter, Huntington, and John Brown, Indianapolis.

Business committee—S. E. M. Colter, South Bend; Dr. W. Ballenger, Richmond, and George F. Dunbar, Crawfordsville.

Committee on resolutions—W. A. Bodell, Lafayette; George L. Dunn, Evansville, and N. C. McCoy, Crawfordsville.

Devotional committee—Rev. A. Gilchrist, Richmond; Addison Tucker, Fairham, and Harry Goetz, New Albany.

Finance committee—L. H. Dunning, Indianapolis; J. W. Burns, Fort Wayne, and J. F. Wallick, Indianapolis.

REGHO BRUTES

Lynched by a Mob for Murdering A Young Lady.

DALTON, GA., Oct. 31.—The two negroes who had been followed 50 miles and caught, charged with the outrage and murder of Miss Baker in Bartol county were taken from the officers last night by a mob and carried into the country, and their dead bodies were found hanging from a tree limb at daylight. The finding of the dead body of the girl by her father was agonizing. Some distance from the house in a stretch of woodland and in the road leading to it the father discovered pools of blood and evidence of a fearful struggle. A bloody track was made in the road where the girl had been dragged. Farther on was a pile of brush, where a tree had been cut down. Lying under the brush, her face downward, bathed in her own blood was the mutilated body of the girl, her throat cut from ear to ear.

GIVE 'EM FULL BOOKS.

And Let Them Vote and Vote Against the Robber Tariff.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Secretary Noble has received a telegram from Governor Steele, of Oklahoma, stating that several counties in the territory were without polls books and other paraphernalia necessary for the election of a congressional delegate on November 4. The matter was referred to the first comptroller of the treasury, who decided that these articles could be purchased out of the contigent funds of the territory. A telegram to this effect has been sent to Governor Steele. The contigent fund of the territory now is only $2,300, which must suffice until the end of the fiscal year.

BEYOND HIS MEANS.

A Confidential Clerk Short in His Accounts.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 31.—Van Abel, the confidential clerk of the L. H. Harris Drug company, is missing, and his accounts are $1,000 short. For the past year he had lived beyond his means. Harris & Co. say they know where the young man is, but do not care to prosecute him. Abel made a full confession before he left and turned over to them his household goods and other valuables. This property will cover about one-third of the defalcation.

An Ohio Decision.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The supreme court to-day decided against the members of the board of public improvements. In the judgment of the court the petition does not make a case for injunction and the application was therefore denied. The court will hand down an opinion later.

Chicago Markets.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Wheat: Oct., $1.01¼; Dec., $1.03; May, $1.08¾. Corn: Dec., 53; May, 55¾. Oats: May, 47¼. Pork: Dec., $10.20; May, $12.87½. Lard: Dec., $6.37½; May, $7.02½@05. Ribs: Dec., $5.55; May, $6.37½.

Jockey Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The present meeting at Bonnings has been so successful that the Jockey club has determined to give an extra meeting of six days next week.

AN OCEAN DISASTER!

Rumor Has It That Two Steamers Collided and Over Sixty Persons were Drowned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A rumor is current in shipping circles that a serious disaster has taken place. The rumor has it that a steamer, which sailed from this port yesterday, was in collision with another vessel on the New Jersey coast and that a large number of the passengers on the steamer were injured. It is said both vessels sank. The report has it that some sixty or seventy persons were drowned.

The steamer Hublot arrived here from Brazil. She reports that she picked up some of the crew of the Spanish steamer.

WILL LEARN HIM.

The Comte de Paris Has a Narrow Escape.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The Comte de Paris had a narrow escape from a horrible death during his journey from Montreal to New York yesterday. At Plattsburg the Count got off the train with others to get some lunch at the railroad station. Not understanding the signal for departure he remained on the platform until the train was fairly in motion. Then he made a spring for the high platform of the Wagner car. He missed the guard rail with one hand, but holding hard with the other swung in between the car platforms. For an instant it seemed inevitable that he would fall to the ground and be crushed to pieces. Several trainmen, however, rushed to the rescue and succeeded in hauling him on to the platform.

BRUTAL TREATMENT

To a Young Woman Confined in the Muncie Poor House.

MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 31.—Lottie Johnson, a young woman about twenty-five years of age, who has no home, was admitted to the Delaware county infirmary about years ago. The girl was healthy in every way except that she was subject to epileptic fits. On the 26th of August last she was taken to the Richmond asylum. She had been there but a short time when she was discharged as cured. When she returned to the infirmary she complained of being sore, and upon investigation the fact was revealed that she had been whipped, her body, from head to foot, being black and blue, and in places the bruises were running sores. She relates many cases of outrageous treatment while there.

ESCAPES FROM SIBERIA.

A Young Russian Who Has Been Imprisoned for Fourteen Years.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—There has arrived in this city a young Russian, named Ketchosky, who made his escape from Siberia after having been imprisoned in that country for fourteen years. When he was but eighteen years of age he was arrested in Vitna on suspicion of having revolutionary documents in his possession and of being identified with a conspiracy at the time. Many hardships and perils attended his flight from Siberia. The fear that by so doing he may endanger the safety of comrades left behind will restrain Mr. Ketchosky from at present publishing the narrative of his flight and escape.

AT A DANCE

A Bloody Row Ensues and One Man is Killed.

CARTHAGE, Ill., Oct. 31.—During a country dance near here Wednesday night a bloody row was caused by a young man named Moses Printy, who had been ordered out of the house. Fifty couples engaged in the affray. Knives, brick-bats, sticks and chairs were the weapons. Joseph Munson was probably fatally stabbed and Moses Printy was also seriously cut. There were no arrests.

The Ceritoria Case.

PIERRE, S. D., Oct. 31.—Application was yesterday filed with the state supreme court for a rehearing in the famous Ceritoria case. It is now claimed by the attorneys for the commissioners that new phases of the case, new authorities, etc., have been discovered that will prove to the court beyond question the wisdom of sustaining the commissioners in establishing voting precincts in Sterling and Bowling counties.

Goes to Prison.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—After twenty hours deliberation the jury in the trial of Actor Charles Crowmly Webster, at 11:15 this morning came into court with a verdict of guilty of manslaughter in the first degree, which means a term of imprisonment for the old actor of not less than five years nor more than twenty.

Horrible Find.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 31.—While Geo. Kreen and a companion were hunting near Forest City, they found a sack in which was the body of a child. A mark on the head showed where the blow was struck that killed it. The authorities are investigating the mystery.

May be Mistaken.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Ex-Governor Baldwin, of Michigan, who is in Washington, says there is no question of the ability of the republicans to elect the state ticket in Michigan this fall. He says the democrats will not get more than two congressmen.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 31.—This city has suffered severely recently from the work of fire bugs, and Wednesday night fires broke out in four different parts of the city. In one instance three families barely escaped with their lives. Ferdinand Escher was arrested on suspicion and other arrests will follow.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 31.—At 1:50 o'clock this morning fire was discovered burning fiercely in the large frame building at No. 1,417 Third avenue, West Troy. There were four families who occupied the building, sleeping within, and they were only awakened in time to escape death in the flames. The building was left in complete ruin before the fire could be checked, although the alarm was sounded promptly, and the fire department responded quickly. The building was owned by Solomon Wickes. The amount of insurance of the estimate of loss has not been ascertained.

DEATH OF PATRICK M'CANN.

A Popular Young Man Summoned to His Last Rest.

Patrick McCann died at his home, 65 Grand street, at 9 o'clock this morning, after a brief illness with typhoid fever. The deceased was twenty-four years old, and was the son of John McCann, the well known contractor, and a brother of Maggie McCann, of F. J. Gruber's cigar manufactory. The young man worked for his father. He was a deserving and popular, and a hard worker. He was especially liked for his willingness to do favors and accomplish good for others. He was a member of the young men's sodality. The sudden summons of Mr. McCann, upon the very threshold of a useful life, will cause universal sorrow and regret, and the members of the bereaved family have the sympathy of a large number of friends.

The funeral of Patrick McCann will occur at 1 o'clock Sunday, from the Cathedral.

ANOTHER LEPER.

A Genuine Case Discovered at Chester, Pennsylvania.

CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 31.—A genuine case of leprosy has been discovered here and there is consequently much excitement. Dr. Evans received a call from a Swede named John Anderson, last week, and not being able to diagonise the case to his own satisfaction he sent the man to the University hospital at Philadelphia. There the doctors pronounced the case as one of leprosy. Anderson will be sent to the county alms house at Lima, Pa., where he will be confined in a separate building until death relieves him of the loathsome disease.

THE WHISKY TRUST.

Many of the Wholesale Dealers Rebel Against It.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 31.—Many wholesale dealers and jobbers have been quite free in their expression of dissatisfaction recently with the manner in which the whisky trust was managing the whisky-making business, and, as a consequence, controlling the business and dictating to the dealers. This rebellion took definite form yesterday in the incorporation of the Central Distilling company. The capital is $150,000 and a site at Rock Springs has already been secured for the erection of a plant.

OUR POPULATION.

The Official Returns Make it 62,480,540.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The census office to-day announced the population of the United States to be 62,480,540. These figures are exclusive of white persons in Indian territory, Indians on reservations and Alaska.

American Coal Trade.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Consul Turner, at St. Thomas, N. B., has made report to the state department in regard to the American coal trade. The report says that during the past year twenty-three steamers arrived at St. Thomas, with 25,577 tons of coal from the United States. During the previous year twenty-two sailing vessels arrived at St. Thomas with coal, fifteen from Great Britain, and seven from the United States.

Anderson's Eighth Factory.

ANDERSON, Oct. 31.—A large carriage hardware factory from Mansfield, O., has been located here by a liberal donation of money and land, and the buildings are to be put up at once. This makes the eighth factory that is now under construction at Anderson.

Missing Man.

JOLIET, Ill., Oct. 31.—A week ago E. A. Beatty, of this city, went to Chicago, having in his possession a considerable sum of money, and nothing has been heard from him since. Beatty left his wife and family in straightened circumstances. He has always led a respectable life and his friends think some harm has befallen him.

Body Found.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 31.—A telegram from Ogdon, Utah, announcing that the body of Detective James Murphy, of this city, who so mysteriously disappeared from there some weeks ago, has been found near that place.

H. Calvin, Bryan, O., and W. D. Tyler, New York, are at the Avolino.

A WICKED TRIO.

The Robbers of the Heller's Corners Postoffice Run Down and Now in Jail.

About four weeks ago the postoffice at Heller's Corners, this county, was robbed. At midnight the intruders, two in number, forced an entrance into the house of Phillip Hathaway, the postmaster, while a confederate stood guard on the outside of the house, and at the point of a revolver Mrs. Hathaway was compelled to emerge from her bed and procure all the money they had, about $25, while the postmaster himself was covered with a weapon in the hand of the other villian, and ordered to remain quiet, under penalty of death.

The matter was reported to Sheriff Viberg and he soon placed under arrest Tom McCullough, of Churubusco, for complicity in the robbery. McCullough is now in jail under $5,000 bonds. The sheriff and his deputies, after careful work, found what they considered convincing proof that the other guilty parties were Edward Carter, of Columbia City, and Hammond Baker, of Churubusco, men who have not had enviable reputations for a time past. The authorities at both places were notified. Yesterday Sheriff Hollopeter, of Whitley county, discovered the whereabouts of Carter and Baker in Columbia City and after an exciting chase placed them both under arrest. Sheriff Viberg was notified and he sent his deputy, Tom Wilkinson, to Columbia City to take the prisoners into custody, and they were brought home and are now in the county jail.

AN INSANE KING

Sits Upon the Throne of Holland—His Bodily Health is Good.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 30.—It has become known that the malady from which the king of Holland suffers is entirely of a mental nature. In fact, his majesty is insane. Physically his health is perfectly sound. The story of his bodily illness was devised and maintained in order to prepare the way and prove the necessity for the establishment of a regency.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—It has been decided, according to advices from Amsterdam, that the Netherlands councilor of state will exercise ruling powers for a month, and if there is then no sign of improvement, Queen Emma will be formally invested with the regency. The prince of Nassau, heir to the throne of Luxemburg, and next to Princess Wilhelmina in line to the crown of Holland, has expressed himself as reluctant to again take the regency of Luxemburg, but will probably do so should the king of Holland, who is also sovereign of Luxemburg, remain incapacitated.

It is announced in St. Petersburg that the Russian government has sent a peremptory message to the porte demanding, among other things, more energetic reforms in the Christian provinces of Turkey. In Constantinople it is said that the police have secured evidence that Russian intrigue is at the bottom of Armenian agitation, but this is hardly probable, in view of the fact that the chief movers in the crusade against Christians in Armenia and other Christian provinces of Turkey, are among those in the enjoyment of the sultan's favor.

An agreement has been entered into between the London Dockers' union and the companies, whereby the threatened trouble has been averted for the present, at least. The details of the agreement are not definitely known, but it is understood that the compromise is a'most as advantageous to the men as they could have desired as the result of a strike, while on the other hand the employers have staved off the loss of many thousands of pounds and a probable diversion of some of their business to other ports.

BROTHERHOOD TELEGRAPHERS

The Western Union is Too Much for Them.

OMAHA, Oct., 31.—The brotherhood telegraphers in this city have agreed to sign an agreement renouncing allegiance to that and all similar organizations, and with this understanding that they will again be taken in the services of the Western Union, one or two members of the brotherhood have been excepted, from this agreement, on account of their prominence in the recent difficulty between the operators and the company.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31. — A prominent member of the local telegraph brotherhood, said yesterday, that at a meeting of Wednesday night the order agreed to surrender its charter in accession to the demands of the Western Union: "We could not stand the pressure," said this gentleman, "especially after St. Paul and St. Louis had surrendered." The Chicago brotherhood, which numbered between 300 and 400, is now a thing of the past.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—For Indiana: Fair weather; northerly winds, becoming variable; warmer Saturday.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, Antwerp, Ohio, October 28, by Rev. J. W. McClusky, Mr. William Nickols, of Fort Wayne, and Miss Sarah Lanning, of Antwep, Ohio.

CRIMINAL AND CIVIL.

A Batch of Cases in the Various Courts.

Samuel Kariger vs. Joseph Embry, the jury brought in a verdict of $644 for the plaintiff. The suit was heard in the circuit court and was on account.

An affidavit has been filed in Justice France's court, charging Wm. Seibert with provoking Henry Hermerler. The parties reside in "Nebraska."

Daniel Shaw et al. enter suit against Patrick Cox, on account; demand, $100.

Justice Taney heard the evidence in the proceedings of which Ada Dibburn was the defendant of a suit, charging her with provoking J. S. Pettit, the book agent. The case was dismissed.

In the Circuit court to-day, Warden & Morris argued for a new trial in the Scott-Wells suit.

K. J. Bauer has been given a judgment of $468.60, against Joseph A. Bauer et. al. on a foreclosure. The case was heard in the Circuit court.

August Henry, charged with assault on Louis Gibson will have a hearing before Justice Ryan at 4 p. m. to-day.

Justice Ryan acquitted Henry Meyers of the charge of cruelty to animals.

The Western National bank sues the Central Mutual insurance company on an insurance policy. Peele & Taylor are attorneys.

WON THE PRIZE.

Master Guy Smith Gets the Pony in the Pumpkin Contest.

That enterprising clothing firm, Sam, Pete & Max, have for a short time past given each purchaser the privilege of guessing the number of seeds contained in a large pumpkin, and the first one guessing the correct number, or nearest to it, would be presented with the beautiful Shetland pony, which has been the object of much admiration in the show window for a week past. In the presence of representatives of the different city newspapers last evening, the pumpkin was cut open and its contents carefully dissected. It was found to contain 557 seeds. There were several guesses of that number, but the first lucky one was held by Master Guy Smith, seven year old son of Clarence G. Smith, of the Newspaper union, whose home is at 344 West Washington street. He was presented with his prize and is the happiest boy in Fort Wayne to-day. The whole affair was conducted in a fair and impartial manner.

JURY DISCHARGED.

The Closely Contested Fahler Will Case Not Decided.

The jury in the closely contested will case of Thomas Fahler, of Lebanon, Pa., against Catharine Fahler et al., of Wells county, reported a disagreement at noon to-day and Judge Chapin discharged them. This case was to set aside the will of the late Mr. Fahler, of Wells county, who bequeathed his estate valued at $30,000 to his sister. The plaintiff to the suit claims to be the son and rightful heir. The proceedings were technical and interesting. Both sides were represented by strong legal talent.

THROUGH A HATCHWAY.

Samuel Golden Has a Bad Fall, Resulting in Injuries.

This morning Samuel Golden, a laborer for Jules Remus, the South Broadway contractor, climbed into the hay loft of the barn on the premises of his employer, to procure the morning's feed for the horses. He forgot his bearings and fell through the opening he had only a moment previously emerged from, and he fell to the hard floor beneath, fracturing two ribs and spraining his back. The injured man was conveyed to his home, 57 West Superior street, where he will be confined to the bed for several weeks.

UNION SERVICES

Of the Christian Endeavor Societies of Fort Wayne.

The union services of the Christian Endeavor societies of Fort Wayne were held last evening at the Congregational church. A very interesting program was carried out, which included music and papers read by the Misses Grace Waldo, Adah Bittenger and Mollie Brokwalter, a solo by Miss Mary Brokaw, three minute talks by city pastors and an exercise, "On to Evansville," by E. F. Biddle.

MAY COME HERE.

Big File Works Talking of Removing to This City.

Mr. Andrew Finegan of Sing Sing, N. Y., representing the Arcade File works of that city, (an old established manufactory of nearly half a century,) has had several conferences with the representative business men here, relative to the removing of that industry to this city.

Ex-President Hayes.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 31.—Ex-President Hayes arrived in town last night and to-day paid a visit to the John Hopkins university and hospital.

He said this morning that his visit was to consult with Dr. Gilman, president of John Hopkin's university in regard to matters connected with the Slater fund for the education of children in the South. He leaves for Cleveland to-day.

OUR NEW CITIZENS.

The Names of Some of Those Who Will be Brought to This City by the Electric Light Works.

The magnitude of the plant that is to be removed from Brooklyn to this city by the Fort Wayne Electric company, is underestimated by many persons. The fact is that the entire lot of machinery used at Brooklyn in the manufacture of the Wood arc electric lamp and all appurtenances to the works will be shipped, to be used in the parent plant in this city. The shipments have already begun. The Wood lamp is used exclusively by the Fort Wayne Electric company in all of its arc light contracts, making quick and ready production of the apparatus from the works necessary. Manager Wood has telegraphed S. C. Lumbard that a large number of skilled artisans will move to Fort Wayne immediately upon the completion of the removal about November 15. Of these there are twenty-four men who have families, and who will, therefore, require homes.

THE SENTINEL has learned that notwithstanding the extensive building that has been in progress during the past season and now continues, desirable homes are not to be procured so readily as might be expected. However, Mr. Lumbard promises to find twenty-five or thirty attractive and comfortable homes and have them in readiness for the new comers. Persons leaving houses to rent will confer a favor by informing Mr. Lumbard. Aside from the families there will also come here twenty-five single gentlemen and a number of heads of families, which will increase the demand for rooms and board. To this contingent of new comers there should be given a warm welcome. When they come, encourage them to stay by a spirit of congeniality and friendliness, for it is such accessions as these that add to the thrift of a city. It will add that many more to our 45,000 population and they will undoubtedly prove good citizens, too. A list has been forwarded to show who have decided to move here, but there will be more of them.

The list of men with families, showing the number in each family, is as follows: I. Birkner, 3; P. J. Downey, 4; P. Bosworth, 5; F. L. Powers, 3; P. J. Donahue, 4; J. McGrath, 5; E. C. Yale, 4; H. Robbins, 2; A. J. Schlichter, 3; J. C. Lott, 3; J. Allen, 4; A. Miller, 3; F. Blasbrow, 4; F. Whaley, 4; P. Jenson, 4; T. Thompson, 4; J. Vliet, 2; C. Muller, 4; F. L. Gardner, 3; J. F. Richenberg, 4; C. H. Worth, 4; L. Carleton, 3; P. Schmidt, 3; H. Evans, 3.

The name of single men coming, so far as learned, are as follows: F. Jonsin, George Wood, T. P. Searles, Paul Wood, O. Hull, T. Houser, W. L. Jenkins, M. Levi, A. Fairchild, W. R. Johnston, W. Coles, George Schooley, T. Spence, R. Brocken, J. Grimm, M. Nestor, O. Lindloff, C. Deber, J. Dieter, ——— Nelson.

Among the number who will come and leave their families at Brooklyn for the present, are H. Ruppert, 3; J. Graalick, 3; J. Bauer, 3; P. McClellan, 4; C. A. Rassfelder, 3.

The occupations of each one is set opposite the name in the list submitted by Manager Wood. It includes several foremen, a number of expert electricians and fine mechanics. The rest of the force required in the new shop will be employed in this city.

St. Paul M. E. Church Revival.

The revival meetings being held at the St. Paul M. E. church, are growing in interest, and attendance with each passing evening. Last evening the attendance was large, and a service of great spiritual power was held. Within the last few evenings there have been five accessions to the church, and three conversions. Services this evening beginning at 7:30.

CHILDREN'S DAY!

And what will interest Parents more than a short talk on Suits and Overcoats. Where to begin—and where to leave off is an awful hard thing to do, when we get to talking Boys' and Children's Clothing. Never think that because we omit to mention some particular style that you may have in your mind's eye that we haven't it. We've so much to tell of that's interesting—probably interesting to you—that something has to go unheralded.

New Suits are prominent wants in hundreds of families, and we're in perfect shape to supply them from good School Suits at $2, $2.50, $3 and $3.50, to Fine Dress Suits at $4, $4.50, $5, $6, $7, $8 and $10.

THERE should be no absenteeism among democrats on November 4.

IF you know of any democratic voter who is likely to be away on election day, send for him or report his name to the central committee.

THERE are many republicans who believe that the increase in tariff taxation occasioned by the passage of the McKinley bill is wrong. Under the new law they can vote their convictions without molestation.

SO THAT all persons may know how to vote, we inclose in to-day's SENTINEL a sample ticket, giving all the candidates, state and county. The instructions to voters are published below the tickets. Read them carefully, so that you may understand how to vote on election day.

SOME voters seem to have the impression that in voting a straight ticket the others are torn off and thrown away. The entire sheet of tickets is to be voted, but only the ticket counted that is stamped before the title. Never scratch or deface a ticket except with the stamp in the square before the name.

THE new election law provides for the appointment of two deputy sheriffs for each precinct, and they are entrusted with the enforcement of the law and are given unusual powers to arrest voters for violations of the law. These deputies are appointed by the sheriff, at the recommendation of the chairmen of the two county committees.

THE election for state, district and county officers takes place next Tuesday, November 4. Democrats should bear in mind that it is the most important election that has taken place for years. The new method of voting is simple and easy, and democrats owe it to themselves and to their country to go to the polls and vote. It is the vote in the ballot box that counts.

COLONEL VILAS estimates the cost of tariff restriction to the people of the United States at $1,000,000,000 a year, less than one-fourth of which is for the support of the government and more than three-fourths for the benefit of the favored classes. It is a burden of $50 a year, on the average, upon every person engaged in a gainful occupation. For the support of the government, $220,000,000; for tribute, $780,000,000. But it may be asked, What becomes of all this tribute? If consumers pay it, somebody must get it. Who has it? Where is it? Colonel Vilas quotes Thomas G. Shearman's estimate that 10,000 people own $30,000,000,000 of the wealth of the United States, or not far from one-half of it. That would account for all that is claimed to have been extorted from the people under cover of the tariff, and leave $15,000,000 or so for fortunes accumulated in other ways. Much of the money that has been extorted has been spent by those who have received it, and vastly more has been absorbed in wasteful and unprofitable production. It is not difficult to account for all the tribute which, according to Colonel Vilas' estimate, has been drawn from the pockets of the people under cover of the tariff laws.

THE reason urged by the advocates of the McKinley robber tariff bill for its passage was that it would increase the wages of workingmen. How many manufacturing establishments in Fort Wayne have increased the wages of their employes? We pause for a reply.

THE republican papers are warning their readers against "political sensations" sprung by the democrats at the last hour. It is the cry of "stop thief," made by the thief himself. We don't know of anybody who springs more of these false stories during the last hours of the campaign than the republicans, who know then that it is too late to deny them. Look out for them and do not deceived.

THE candidate of the republican party for congress, Mr. Jaynes N. Babcock, was in the city Wednesday night and addressed an audience of fifteen voters and ten small boys at the Old Church in the Eighth ward. He felt severely the shabby manner in which he was treated by the leading republicans of the city, who did not turn out to hear him, and only spoke for fifteen or twenty minutes. The republicans ought to apologize to their candidate for the shameful way in which they treated him.

IS THE TARIFF A TAX?

Well, let us see:

The Grocers' Criterion, published at Chicago, is not a partisan newspaper, but is a business guide and is sent out to dealers in all lines of goods.

Under the heading "The New Tariff Bill" it has in its last issue some very interesting matter treating upon the increased prices on nearly all lines of goods. We quote:

"The rates of ready made clothing are advanced."

"The duty on linen shirts and other wearing apparel is increased from 40 to 55 per cent., and on lacings, edgings, etc., from 40 to 60 per cent."

"Washed wools of the first class, pay twice the rates of unwashed wools. The rates on woolen and worsted yarns and cloths are heavily increased, paying generally from 10 cents a pound to 33 cents per pound. The rates on blankets, hats and flannel underwear are also increased, as well as women's and children's dress goods, coat linings, webbings, bindings, braids, etc. On fine carpets the rates are increased from 45 cents to 60 cents per square yard, and on cheaper grades the increase is greater in proportion."

Oh, yes; on the cheaper grades, that the poorer classes have to buy, the increase is greater than on the very fine ones that the millionaires are able to indulge in. This tariff was "revised by its friends," you know, and that simply means that the millionaires dictated how it should be revised, and while they are let down easy the load is saddled onto the middle and poorer classes.

"In glassware and crockery there are some increase on the rates of commonbrand earthenware, but the rates on china, porcelain, etc., are unchanged."

"An interview with Robert M. Fair, of Marshall, Field & Co., elicited the fact that in the McKinley Bill the tariff on dry goods, generally speaking, would be advanced from 10 to 25 per cent, and that the prices to consumers would be advanced accordingly." * * * "The tariff is increased on almost every article which they import, silks being an exception."

Again you see the effect of this tariff as "revised by its friends." Silks, for the rich, are in no wise increased, but on the cheaper grades, the necessities of the masses, the tax is raised 10 to 25 per cent.

"'Tin plate has advanced $3.50 per box,' said Mr. Butler, of Sherman, Tangenberg & Co."

How do you like it, you who want a tin roof, to pay this needless extra into the pockets of the millionaires?

"The drug trade regrets very much the passage of the bill."

"Mr. E. H. Pitkin, of Pitkin & Brooks, informs us that the prices of china, earthenware and glassware have already risen in consequence of the passage of this bill, the probabilities being a still further rise."

"In clothing, Ed. L. Huntley & Co., say that every article used in the manufacture of clothing has been taxed heavily by the new tariff bill, and that a suit of clothes previously costing the consumer $20 will now be advanced to $27.50 or $30."

And still "the tariff is not a tax," they say.

Reader, don't get excited; just go to bed after reading this from a non partisan trade journal, and after you sleep over it then say candidly whether the tariff isn't a tax, and a mighty heavy one, and whether it isn't time to elect a congress that will have the tariff "revised by its enemies," instead of its friends.

THIS IS HALLOWE'EN.

Which Has Been Celebrated Through Centuries—The Prince of Mischief Abroad in the Land.

To-night is Hallowe'en and around it clusters more Old World superstitions than begirt the other 364 nights that go to make up the year.

The small boy knows it best as "cabbage night," and to him it means a round of fun. He has been keeping track of it. He knows it comes with darkness and for days he has been keeping his optics on the cabbage heads in the back yards of his neighbors.

The small boys knows where all the cabbage in the neighborhood, for squares around, is kept, and as soon as night has stolen over the earth he will be out with his companions, carefully climbing over the back yard fences, and stealthfully approaching the mound where the cabbage is buried. It is no use to watch him, for if it is there he will have it if he has to stay up all night, and after he has it in his grasp he is off on his round of pranks.

The readers of THE SENTINEL know how he will put in the night. They were all young once and as they peruse this Hallowe'en article, memories of those old-time days, when they were out on the All Hallows Eve lark, will crowd in on them thick and fast, and when the "bump," "bump" of the cabbage head comes against the door, they will say, "Oh, it's boys. They are out for a little fun. Let them have it."

Gates are carried off from their hinges, and the posts are ornamented with hideous, grinning faces, made of a grotesque pumpkin, hollowed out, and containing a lighted candle. Bonfires are built and potatoes, eggs and apples roasted on the hot coals. Door bells are mysteriously rung and the king of mischief and his retinue are abroad in the land.

But the Hallowe'en is not now what it once was. The boyish pranks of twenty, thirty and forty years ago (many of them) seem to be unknown to the boys of to-day and there isn't one one-hundredth part of the fun crowded into the night now as there was then. Many of the older readers of THE SENTINEL could tell the boys of to-day Hallowe'en stories that would "make their hair stand on end," but it is best, perhaps, that those olden-time tricks (some of them mean and cruel in their nature) should be discontinued, and we will not tell more of them now for fear the boys will be tempted to repeat them to-night in Fort Wayne.

There used to be a time when the night was full of superstitions, and men, women and children believed that on All Hallow Eve disembodied spirits visited the earth again; that devils, witches and fairies were abroad; that supernatural influences existed everywhere, but these old-time superstitions passed away with the advent of railways, telegraph, and, most of all, with the enlightening influences of the newspapers, and now the night is mostly (among those who desire to celebrate it) given to amusements of a social nature, either at home or in some public hall. Even the boyish pranks grow to be less common, and bye and bye, perhaps, they will cease all together.

Hallowe'en, or more properly All Hallows Eve, is the night before All Saints' day and comes on October 31st, being kept as a vigil by some churches for the religious ceremonies of the following day, November 1st, when honor is done in the sanctuaries to all the saints. This is its real signification now, and yet in many countries the old superstitions still prevail and we give a few of them.

In the north of England this is "Nut-crack-Night," and everywhere nuts and apples are in demand for consumption or for divination. In Ireland the same customs exist as in the sister isle; the lads and lasses gather by the blazing fire of peat and bogwood; the hearth is cleanly swept and each pair of lovers put two nuts before the fire; if either jumps the party represented is sure to give the other the mitten.

Ducking for apples is another ceremony peculiar to Hallowe'en. Apples are placed in a tub of water, and often coins, and the attempts to catch them in the mouth produce tremendous mirth. So, too, does the "snapapple crose"; apples and lighted candles are placed on the opposite ends of a wooden cross, suspended by a string, and the attempts to rescue an apple with the mouth is generally rewarded by catching the twirling candle.

Three plates, containing earth, water and a ring, are placed on the table, the fortune seeker is led blindfolded, and his selection dooms him to death, exile or marriage within the ensuing year. A somewhat similar form of divination exists in Scotland.

"Popping" is a custom as popular in America as in the old country, where it originated. One girl heats a shovel red hot. Two chestnuts are then named after two of the company, as Jennie and Jack. In a few minutes they begin to sputter, and when they pop with much noise and confusion it is judged by the method of popping how the love affair will terminate. If Jennie pops away it is surmised that it is meant as an invitation for Jack to follow and capture her, but if Jack pops he is not for her. If the two pop side by side or away together, it is the happiest of auguries. If the pair of chestnuts burn up into a flame and consume together it foretells a happy married future.

Eating the apple—This first demands a walk through a long corridor, when, if the young lady does not see her lover, she must return backward, going to her room and eating the apple before a looking glass while she combs her hair. She will then see her future husband's face over her shoulder.

Paring an apple in one long paring, throwing it over the shoulder and letting it fall is a favorite spell of the night. If it falls so as to resemble a letter, that will be the first letter of a coming lover's name.

The Hallowe'en Mirror—This is always a moonlight night performance, as the spell is assisted by the spectral light of the moon. The young woman looking into the glass must munch an apple at the same time. As the moonbeams fall across the glass she will see a face beside her own, which will be that of the man she is to marry. This test is very trying one, and many cases have been known where a delicate girl has fainted from fright, her imagination supplying the expected face.

The Three Leggies—These are three bowls of water placed on the hearth, a custom prevalent in Scotland and referred to by Burns. One is filled with clear water, one with turbid water and one is empty. Whoever dips must be blindfolded and use the left hand only. If it is a maiden and she dips into the clear water she will marry a young man and be prosperous. If she, however, puts her hand in the turbid bowl her husband will be a widower, and she will have more or less trouble, but if she dips into the empty dish, never a husband will she have at all.

A Scottish superstition was:—The girl would take her ball of knitting worsted and at midnight, standing on the edge of an old lime kiln, would throw it down in the devil's name, and commencing to wind up the end would say, "I wind, who holds?" when a voice was supposed to answer, "I hold." Many fatal accidents from shock followed these incantations, caused probably by some of the lads who knew that such a visit would be made.

But when all the sports were finished, then came the crowning terror to the rustic mind—the journey home and the possibility of meeting the dreaded "Phooka," the hairy, misshapen spirit steed that on this particular night was permitted to roam around and decoy wearied pedestrians to mount him.

Some of these sports may be repeated to-night among our young folks and much merriment will ensue. All in all, with the repetition of these pranks and the parties, dances and night "raids" of the small boy Hallowe'en will not go unobserved in Fort Wayne.

To-morrow will be All Saints day. As early as the fourth century the Greeks kept on the first Sunday after Pentecost the feast of all Martyrs and Saints, and there is still a sermon of St. John Chrysostom delivered on that day. The feast was introduced in the west by Pope Boniface IV. The feast was at first kept on the 13th of May, but the day was changed to the 1st of November by Gregory IV. This feast has been instituted by the church to honor all the saints who reign in heaven.

Next Sunday will be All Souls day. It is a solemn commemoration of and prayer for all the souls in purgatory. This feast is kept on the 2d day of November. This feast owes its origin to Odilo Abbot, of Cluguy, who instituted this solemnity for all the monasteries of his order in 998.

Both days will be religiously observed by the Catholics in this city.

The forty hour devotions began at the Cathedral to-day at 9 o'clock. Father Ambrose, of Cincinnati, a Franciscan, preached in the forenoon and will be heard again this evening. To-morrow the principal services will be at 5, 7:30, 10 a. m., and in the evening at 7:30, closing with a sermon, procession and benediction on Sunday evening.

HOW TO VOTE.

If you want to vote a straight ticket, stamp the square to the left of the name of the party for whose candidates you wish to vote; that is, you should stamp the square to the left of the words "Democratic Ticket." Be careful about this, some think that they should stamp the square to the left of the name of the secretary of state in order to vote the straight ticket; but a ticket stamped that way would be counted for the secretary of state only.

Don't forget that the way to vote a straight ticket is to stamp the square at the left of the words "Democratic Ticket."

Again—You can vote a mixed ticket in either of two ways:

1. You can do it by stamping the square to the left of the name of each candidate for whom you want to vote on whatever list of candidates it may be.

2. Or you can stamp the square to the left of the name of your party, and also to the left of a person on another ticket for whom you wish to vote.

DOES ADVANCE PRICES.

Mr. W. E. McDermut in his speech to the wage earners of this city, delivered at the circuit court room last Thursday evening on the tariff said:

It is undoubtedly true that the effect of the tariff is to enable manufacturers to charge higher prices. This is illustrated within the present month since the McKinley bill went into effect. All over the country we hear of prices going up in this branch of business and in that—in fact, in every branch of industry except wages. I hold in my hand a letter written by a New York jobber to a dry goods firm in Fort Wayne, which says that certain black goods heretofore ordered, cannot be sent, because the old stock is exhausted, and the same goods now will advance on account of the tariff, from 42 cents to about 55 cents. The letter says that the manufacturers are already figuring to see how high they can advance their goods, and that in order to protect orders to be filled during the next thirty or forty days, merchants will have to put up a handsome margin. It says that, while the jobbers have the goods the merchants can get them without the advance, but that the manufacturers are holding back their stuff, and very few jobbers have much of a stock on hand. There is not one section in the whole McKinley bill which shows that the slightest consideration was given to the interest of labor. The bill is said to be a bill to reduce the revenue, and yet it is intended to increase taxation. How can a law reduce the revenue and at the same time increase taxation? I will tell you. By increasing the duties it discourages importations, thus reducing revenue, and at the same time permits the protected classes to increase prices, thus increasing the people's burdens.

PROTECTION POEM.

Sing a song, protection,
Monopolists are glad.
But the common people
Are looking very sad.
All the ports are open,
But nothing can come in.
Except the pauper labor,
To help us make our tin.

Rock a-bye baby, in the tree top.
Hero comes McKinley, now cradle will stop.
Till pa pays the tariff; no wonder you bawl,
For he puts up for baby and cradle and all.

"A KING WITH A CAPITAL "K."

BIG "K."

A KING WITH A CAPITAL "K."

"THE KIDNEY MONARCH."

A remedy which is "every inch a King," and worthy of the grateful homage and admiration of its Sixty Million American Subjects, is

HIBBARD'S "HERB EXTRACT,"

Its throne is in the tuneful hearts of hundreds of thousands of its users, who sing its praises and carry its renown from ocean to ocean. Join the throng and help shout the glad tidings of a people ransomed from the galling chains and terrible captivity of

HEREDITARY SCROFULA.

It's not the discovery of a heaven guided tramp, but an honest remedy with which one of the most skillful physicians of his day cured Mrs. Hibbard, over forty-five years ago, after she had been most terribly afflicted by hereditary blood disease, which consumed her nose and other parts of her face, and since her cure, (over forty-six years ago,) she has made the placing of this remedy before the public her life-long work. A circular giving a short history of her case will be sent on application.

It is not a cure-all, but is positively guaranteed in all cases of Blood and Skin diseases, such as Scrofula, Cancer, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, and Kidney and Liver Complaints. The remedy contains neither Mercury or Potash, but its properties are purely vegetable and harmless.

As a powerful invigorating Tonic, it helps the stomach and imparts strength and vitality to the entire system.

Mrs. Hibbard's reputation at home and abroad is sufficient evidence of her honesty of purpose. Although sixty-five years of age, she devotes her entire time to the alleviation of human suffering. Call on her or write, describing your case, and she will give you an honest opinion, and advice free of charge. The "Herb Extract" is for sale by all Druggists, at $1.00 per bottle, 6 for $5.00, or sent by express on receipt of price.

WILL IT RETURN?

Much Speculation as to the Probable Re-Appearance of Grip.—What Certain Symptoms Mean.

There can be little doubt that the "grip" which played such sad havoc last year, has not only left its effects upon a great many, but seems to be returning in various localities. All physicians report that there is an alarming prevalence of heavy colds, accompanied by all grip symptoms. Many people take cold easier than before; others are troubled with weak eyes, headaches, &c. These things not only come to those who were laid low by the grip last year, but are also visiting many who escaped. Pains, neuralgia, lassitude, all the symptoms are present.

Every leading physician who treated the grip last season prescribed stimulants. The weakening, depressed state of the body demanded this, and there are numerous cases on record where pure whisky saved the lives of men and women who were fast drifting toward the grave. As in all other things, however, the purity of an article determines its value, and to say that ordinary whiskey will assist is absured. It is only pure whisky, of medicinal quality, which can be made available, and it is in this respect that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has shown itself to be immeasurably superior to any other known stimulant. The attention of the best physicians has been drawn to this truth, and the fact that they are prescribing this whiskey constantly, is the highest praise they could bestow. Prof. Joseph Farrish says: "We know that whiskey will steady the heart, slow the pulse, calm excitement, and we ought to use it." Be very careful, however, that you secure only the genuine, and such as has, by years of popularity, been proven purest and best. In other words use only Duffy's.

BITS OF NEWS.

Small Talk Indulged in by Our Railroad Reporter After a Trip of the Busy Centers.

The clerks in the shops are busy making out their monthly reports.

J. M. Osborne, division freight agent of the Wabash road, is in the city.

H. Laible, of the Pittsburg car shop, is off duty on account of sickness.

J. Johnson, of the Pittsburg car shop, is off duty on account of sickness.

P. Kucher is now working on the wheel press in the Pittsburg car shop.

Supt. J. B. Barnes, of the Wabash road, is in the city for a few days' visit.

Some of the men in the Pittsburg copper shop, are working thirteen hours a day.

G. Anderson, engineer on the Pittsburg road, is off duty on a few days' vacation.

J. K. Sage, traveling freight agent of the Rock Island Route, was in the city yesterday.

H. J. Woehnker, engineer on the Pittsburg road, is off duty on a few days' vacation.

Master Mechanic G. L. Potter, of the Pittsburg shops, has returned from a trip to Altoona, Pa.

Several of the boys in the shops attended the City band dance at the Princess rink last evening.

Several coke stoves have temporarily been placed in the Bass moulding rooms during this cold spell.

Fred Miller, of the Bass machine shop, is working at the Fort Wayne Iron works for a few days.

Thomas Adkins, of New Haven, was in the city yesterday. He was formerly a section hand on the Nickel Plate in this city.

Joseph Harkenrider, of the east Pittsburg shops, who was injured a few days ago has recovered and resumed his position.

Foreman G. H. Judy, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, has returned from a few days' business trip to Altoona, Pa.

The Horton Manufacturing company's works is closed down to-day and to-morrow to place a large line shafting in the main building.

Arbor Stevens, target tender in the Pittsburg yards at South Chicago, arrived in the city this afternoon to visit his family on Oliver street.

W. G. Page, of the Pittsburg round house, will go to New Haven to-morrow and Fred Tegtmeyer, of the same department, will go to Arcola.

The Nickle Plate road at the present time is hauling a great deal of live stock. Yesterday one hundred cars composing three sections were taken east.

The Bass works shipped a huge boiler to the firm of H. Baker, at Baber, Ind., this morning, and two to the National Forge and Iron works at Chicago.

Wm. English, passenger brakeman on the Pittsburg road, has returned from his wedding trip. He visited at Chicago and several large western cities.

Engine No. 383 has been turned out of the Wabash shops after a general repair, and engine No. 352 has been placed in the shops for a general overhauling.

J. H. Beaigin, of the electric light works, has resigned his position to accept one with the vice gang in the Pittsburg machine shop. He formerly worked in the same department.

Owen Barry, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, will give a Hallowe'en party at his home this evening. He has engaged the Nikolai string band for the occasion and a pleasant time is anticipated.

William McPhail, master mechanic of the shops of the Lake Erie and Western at Lafayette, will retire from that position to-morrow to take the office of master mechanic of the Muncie shops in this city.

General Superintendent Mogee, of the Wabash has issued a circular announcing that the annual track inspection will take place during the week beginning November 17, and will include the seven months work from April 1 to October 31. The section showing the highest general average on each division road master's territory will be awarded a first premium of $35; the one showing the next highest will be awarded a second premium of $25. Yard sections will be classed together and allowed to compete for a first and second premium independent of the road sections.

J. A. Nolan, sr., of the Pittsburg machine shop, who had one of his fingers mashed so badly a few weeks ago that amputation was necessary, has fully recovered and will resume his position next Monday.

Passenger Engineer Thomas Telley, of the limited passenger train on the Pittsburg road, who was injured a few weeks ago in a wreck in the yards in Chicago, has recovered and is able to be out on the street.

Wm. Lonergan, of the machine department of the Kerr Murray works, left to-day for Cecil, Ohio. When he gets there he will disappear in the large woods of that section of the country and hunt wild game, returning next Tuesday.

The coal premiums of the Pittsburg road has been given out for the month. It shows that J. S. Christy, engineer, and Fireman E. Crawford, received the highest on the passenger, and Engineer S. P. Craig, and Fireman B. S. Hedges received the highest on freight.

Harry Crawford, sr., says it is the intention to build the Indiana Midland road to Paris, Ill., some forty miles beyond its present terminal. When he gets ready to build the extension he says there will be no trouble in securing the money to do it.

The Pennsylvania company is disposed to make extensive improvements at Logansport, but is baffled by adverse action of the citizens through the city council, and by the exorbitant prices owners of ground they desire to purchase have placed on their property.

E. B. White, of the erecting gang in the Pittsburg machine shop, had the great toe of his left foot badly mashed while on duty this morning. He was handling a large piece of iron which slipped from his grasp with the above results. He will be detained from work for several days.

Conductor Mart Ryan, who was killed on the Pennsylvania line near Knightstown on Monday, allowed an accident policy in the railway officials' and conductors' association for $5,000 to expire about three weeks ago, and on Saturday last intended to attend to its renewal, but neglected it. He carried a $2,000 policy in the Catholic Knights.

John Schmidt, the fireman on the the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, who was injured recently at Decatur, was in the city to see his attending physician, Dr. E. J. McOscar, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Schmidt is staying at his home in Avilla, and is recovering the use of a foot, which it was first thought would have to be amputated.

A bad wreck occurred early this morning on the Pittsburg road near Bucyrus, Ohio, in which thirteen cars were thrown from the track. A freight train was going along at a rapid rate of speed, when the trucks on one of the cars gave way and jumped the track. The cars behind it were piled up on top of the broken one and the track was completely blockaded. Several of the cars were broken to pieces and the freight was scattered promiscuously. No. 5, the limited passenger train on that road, due here at 5:35 a. m., was compelled to back up from that place to Crestline and go around on another road. The wrecking train from this city is on the scene. None of the trainmen were seriously injured.

The City band ball at the Princess rink last night was largely attended and the affair was a huge success. The music was furnished by the popular band and Reineke's orchestra. The arrangements for the affair were made by Messrs. F. J. Reineke, E. Goobel and Geo. Jacobs. As the guests arrived they were received by a committee composed of Messrs. Chas. Meyer, H. Scherer and W. Tuttle. The floor was under the care of Messrs. Ed. Cartwright, John Dennison, Albert Melching and Louis Bourie. Mr. E. E. Cartwright was head floor manager and very ably took care of that part. At 12:30 an intermission was made for supper, after which the dancing program was resumed and finished at a late hour this morning. This was the eighth annual ball of the band.
